Global R-Hub

Empowering Aspiring Researchers

Research. Publish. Standout.

Welcome to Global R-Hub

Empowering students to venture beyond the classroom and explore the world of research through our guided mentorship programs and publication opportunities that help you:

- Stand Out in College Admissions
- Improve Your College Readiness
- Prepare for Lifelong Success

Why Choose Us?

- 1-on-1 Research Mentorship
- Research Methodology Training
- Publication Opportunities
- Hands-On Learning
- Global Faculty Advisors
- Letter of Recommenda-tion
- Free Demo sessions

Why Research Matters?

- Develops Critical Thinking
- Builds Professional Communication Skills
- Achieves Greater Global Research Impact
- Strengthens Top-Tier College Admissions
- Opens Better Career Opportunities

Founder's Note

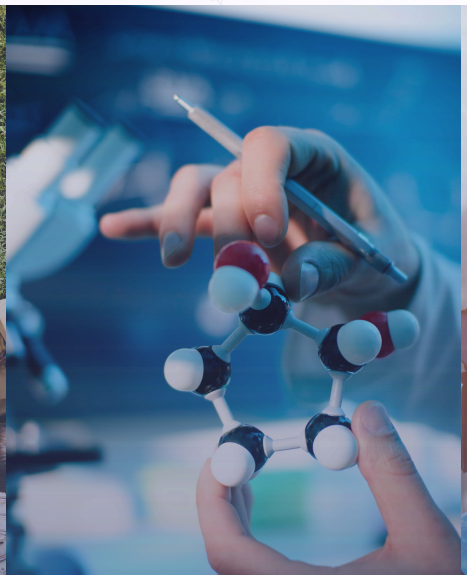

Our mission is to connect students with expert Ph.D. mentors and Subject Matter Experts who inspire critical and creative thinking, turning ideas into impactful research that can be published and presented.

I'm proud of the growing research community of young scholars, graduate students and working professionals that we are building. This community has already published exceptional papers in indexed peer-reviewed journals and received acceptances to highly selective top ranked universities. As we continue to expand Global R-Hub internationally our commitment to excellence remains steadfast.

Dr. Shivendu S.
Founder & CEO,
Associate Professor, University of South Florida
IAS Retd. (1984 Batch) | IIM-Ahmedabad | IIT-Kanpur

Hands-on Research Experience

Obstacles Students Face

- Unsure how to start or choose a research topic
- Limited access to experienced global faculty
- Low awareness about the impact of research publication at an early age
- Struggle with methodology, analysis, and structuring papers

How Global R-Hub Adds Value

- Personalized Mentorship: 20 one on-one sessions with Ph.D. mentors for each project
- Global Faculty Review: Our Students' Projects are critically reviewed by global faculty
- Publication Opportunities: Support to publish research in relevant journals
- Create Your Own Project: Develop your project idea under the guidance of Global R-Hub mentors

How Global R-Hub Works

1 Project Initiation

- Foundational Research Training
- Assignment of Project Mentor and Advisor

2 Project Planning

- Selection of Project Idea
- Literature Review to Identify Research Gap
- Research Design and Methodology

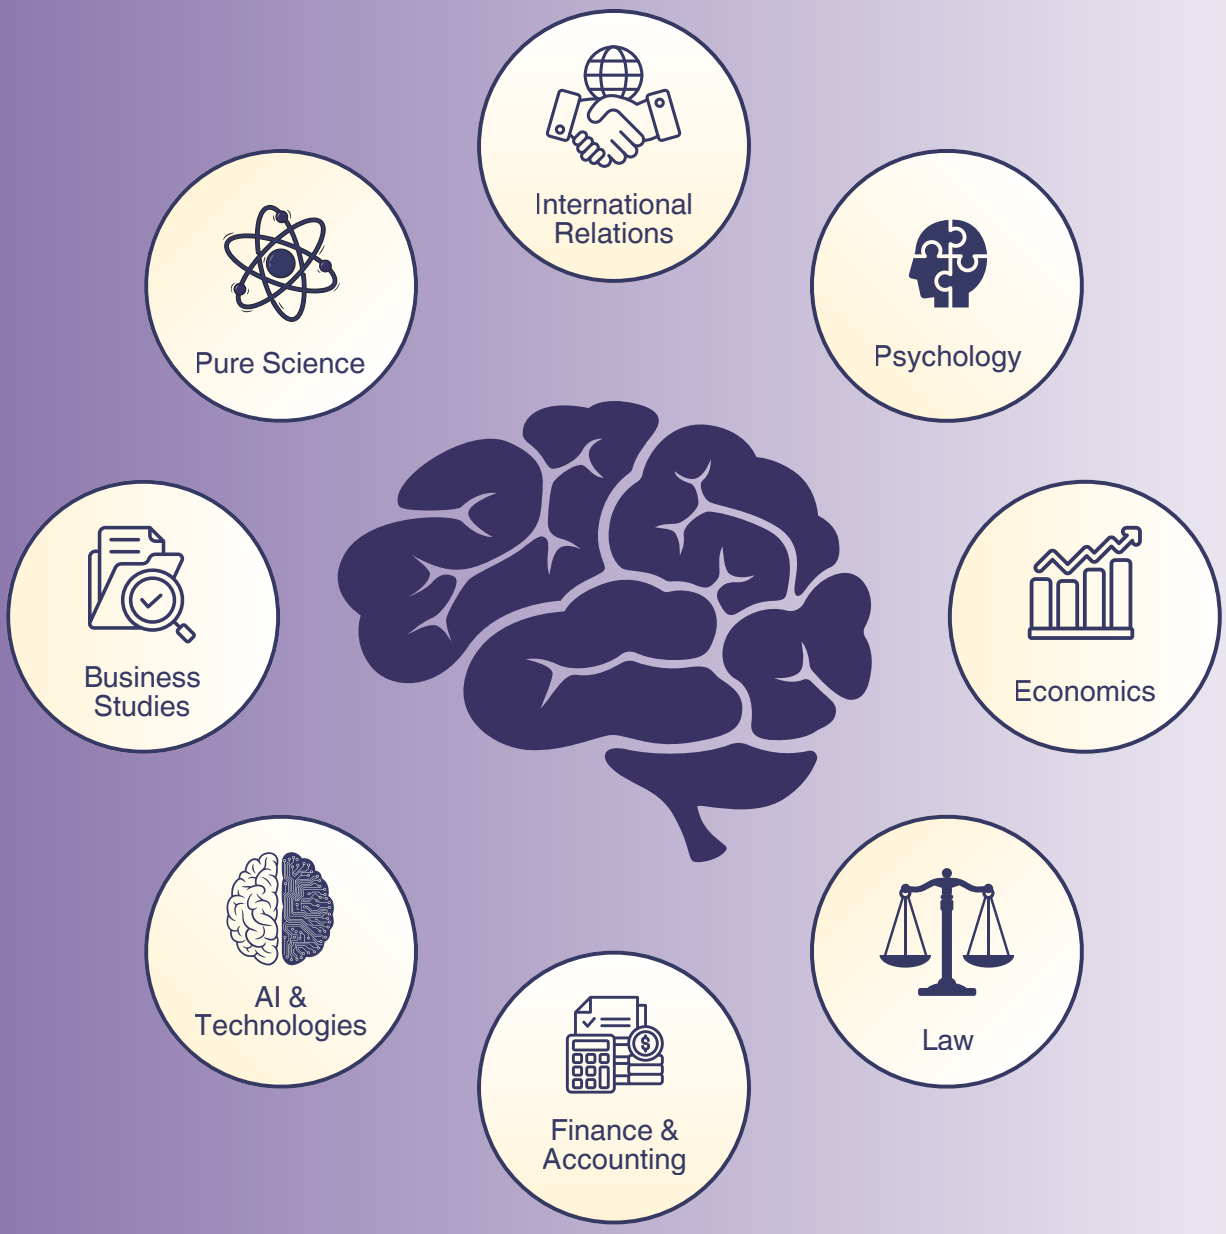

3 Data Collection and Analysis

- Data Collection and Analysis
- Data Interpretation
- Report Writing

4 Final Submission

- Presentation to Faculty Advisor

G. Dia Reddy
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, USA

Working on a research project with Dr. Shrivastava was an incredible experience. From the very beginning, she made complex topics like Non-Performing Assets (NPAs) completely accessible.

Aryaman Kedia
NYU Stern School of Business, NYU

Under Dr. Neharika Srivastava's mentorship, my published research on PMJDY strengthened my policy research skills and contributed to my selection at New York University Stern School of Business

Sonam Denzongpa
Curtin University, Singapore

My research, conducted under Dr. Neharika Shrivastava, involved a comparative econometric study of real estate firms in India and Singapore, and the published work helped me secure admission to Curtin University Singapore.

Nischal Chettri
Downtown University, Assam

The Global Research Hub Research Mentorship Program gave me valuable hands-on experience in finance research, from data collection to analysis, under the mentorship of Dr. Neharika Srivastava.

Research Scholar Program

Age-appropriate projects building curiosity and research skills.

Young Scholar Program - YSP

(Grades 6-8)

High School Scholar Program - HSSP

(Grades 9-12)

Undergraduate Scholar Program - UGSP

(1st-4th Year College)

Graduate Scholar Program - GSP

(Masters, MBA & Ph.D.)

All research programs are offered in both 1-on-1 and Group Mentorship formats.

The Group Model (2–3 students per cohort) facilitates collaborative research engagement, peer dialogue, and shared project costs, while maintaining guided academic mentorship.
